

Ocean films

Founded in 2000, with offices in Rio de Janeiro, São Paulo and Florianópolis, Ocean has already produced reality shows, fiction series, documentaries, shorts and feature films, as well as music videos for artists such as Ricky Martin, Diana Krall, U2 and Katy Perry. The company also offers a range of production services, working with clients such as Coca-Cola, Adidas and Samsung.

Ocean has worked in partnership with several channels and platforms such as Rede Globo, Turner Latin America, RTP, Globoplay, ESPN, Netflix and HBO, and has filmed in the United States, Italy, France, Spain, Portugal, Indonesia, Argentina, Bolivia, Chile and New Zealand.

Ocean's first feature film, "Little Secret", directed by David Schürmann, was selected as the Brazilian representative in the Best Foreign Film category at the 89th Academy Awards. In the same year, 2017, the company released the documentary feature "Legitimate Defense", directed by Susanna Lira, which won the award for Best Film at the Festival Mujeres en Foco in Argentina.

In 2020, Ocean launched the docu-reality series "For a Breath" on Globoplay, about the daily lives of doctors on the front lines of the Covid-19 pandemic. In February 2022, "Summer Heat", a fictional series created and co-produced by Ocean, premiered on Netflix. The documentary series "Trans-Amazonian - A Road to the Past", an Ocean production directed by Jorge Bodanzky and Fabiano Maciel, was released exclusively for HBO and was awarded the Brazilian Cinema Grand Prix for Best Documentary Series of 2022.

In 2023, the feature documentary "Amazon, the New Minamata?", by Jorge Bodanzky, a co-production with Globo Filmes and GloboNews, was screened at Docs MX's; as the documentary "At This Moment, in the Nation's Sky", directed by Sandra Kogut and co-produced with Canal Brasil GloboNews and Globo Filmes, had its premiere at Festival de Brasília where it provoked emotional reactions from the audience and won the Special Jury Prize and Best Editing.

Ocean Films is currently producing the second season of "Crossed Moments", a documentary series for Canal Curta; the documentary "When Brazil Was Modern", and the fiction feature film "Golden Men", directed by Mauro Lima, a co-production with Globo Filmes and Telecine—all scheduled for release in 2025. In addition, Ocean Films is producing the series "Meninos Bons de Bola", for TV Cultura, and "Revisitando Versos", in co-production with Ventre Studios, for GNT — both directed by Susanna Lira.

"Clarice", the next fiction feature film to be produced by Ocean, has Andréia Horta confirmed as its protagonist, a strong woman who, in the oppressive Brazil of the 70s, fights for justice. The drama will be directed by renowned filmmaker Susanna Lira and distributed by Vitrine Filmes.

Ocean's development team is actively working on numerous projects, that are being presented by our producers in national and international markets, such as the documentary series "Nature of Color", to be directed by Walter Carvalho, the fiction series "The Jungle Saviors", selected at the very competitive Series Mania Rio Workshop, and "The True Story of Pedro", finalist of Guiões – an important european screenwriting contest.
